THE FRUIT CABINET of the Agricultural Department at Washington, D. C., contains plaster casts of the fruits from all the different sections of the United States, arranged so as to any one. show at a glance the products of each region and the specific changes caused by transplantation. It has been ascertained, by examination of these specimens, that Northern apples, when transplanted to more Southern localities, enlarge in size, become more juicy and luscious, and acquire a large per centage of saccharine matter. As a drawback to these advantages. however, they lose the quality of keeping over the winter. Thus the Baldwin apple gs grown in Massachusetts, is a small fruit, but as the tree is transferred through Western New York, it becomes larger and brighter in color, with an improved taste. It, however, cannot be pre-served till the next spring. The Snow apple of Canada, and other varieties exhibit a tendency to shrivel up when planted south of Lake Erie. The Russian apples, recently introduced into the United States, it is thought, should only be planted in the Northern parts of this country. On the walls of the Fruit Cabinet are hung diagrams, showing the character and habits of the different insects that prey upon the fruit and fruit trees of the United States. and in glass cases are preserved the native birds that feed upon these destructive insects, which should be protected by the kind treatment of the fruit culturists.

Bass.—The enthusiastic angler. Mr. Thaddeus Norris, and others of Philadelphia, raised a subscription for catching and transporting black bass from the Potomac to the Delaware. Mr. Philip Reed was entrusted with the commission. He went to Harper's Ferry, and there employed anglers to catch the fish, who received 25 cents for each fish. As fast as the fish were caught, they were placed in perforated boxes, submerged and carefully watched. In a few weeks 706 fish were obtained, and last started for their new home. Forty-six hours COOK & CREIGHTON, were consumed in the transportation from Harper's Ferry to Phillipsburg on the Delaware. Notwithstanding the water in the tanks was frequently supplied with air by a pump, and every possible care taken of the fish, about one hundred died during the passage. The rest arrived | from the country. safely, and when turned loose in the Delaware swam off as gaily as if they had been in their native Potomac. All the railroads kindly offered free transportation for fish and attendants. Richmond Whig.

CARE OF MACHINES &c. - Agricultural machines are costly, and it is of great importance that they should be taken care of. It is well known that a machine or implement which is kept in repair; painted and oiled, and housed, when not in use, will last twice as long as one that is left under the weather, rotting or rusting in the rain, or warping or splitting in mowers, seed drills. etc., yet do not take the least precaution to keep them from damage by exposure to the weather, or from want of painting, oiling or repairing. One of the most necessary buildings on a farm is a tool house, or implement shed, in which all the machines, implements and tools used on the farm, can be arranged under the owner's eye and kept safe from damage from rain or sun.

A TERRIBLE ALTERNATIVE.—A newspaper recently came to the New York Tribune from a struments. Any piece not on hand will be fur-Western city, with this indorsement upon the margin: "X or be damned." That paper says: "The alternative is fearful, but, as of cheenest and the vary best, with a general astwo evils, the Tribune makes it a rule always to choose the least, it declines to 'X.' A 'little story' is appropriate here. Some years ago, a young man of culture and good taste went to terms that will leave no reasonable cause to perhear a well-known ranter preach. Getting disgusted before the sermon was half through, he left his seat, and was going on tip-toe toward the door, when the preacher roared out :-Young man! had you rather go to hell than hear me preach?' Though somewhat startled at first the young man faced about, and, with a graceful bow, responded. 'On the whole, parson, I think I would.'

MUTUAL FORBEARANCE. - If we wish to succeed in life, we must learn to take people as they are, and not as they ought to be; making them better if we can, but at the same time remembering their infirmities. We have to deal, not with ideal men, but with the real men of everyday life, men precisely like ourselves. This fact of common aims, ambitions and infirmities ought to create constant sympathy and forbearance. While every man has his own burden to bear, he may at the same time in some way help another to bear his peculiar burden, and be himself helped in turn. God has mysteriously linked all men together by this curious fact of mutual dependence, and this wonderful possibility of mutual help.

THE MODERN NOVEL. -The average modern novel is an invention by which so much foolscap is covered in a short space of time by a series of imagined or remembered experiences that are penned at the instigation of the writer's friends. A publisher is found who is willing to bear an infinitesimal share of the expenses, and in due field station, on the O., A. & M. R. R. time the fifty or one hundred crude chapters tract lies between the turnpike and railroad. which comprise the work are foisted upon the public, after which the author lives calmly and triumphantly, the cynosure of the circle among which he was born, and the unctuous possessor of the reputation of having written a book. - N.

NEW 7-30 GOLD LOAN. SAFE! PROFITABLE! PERMANENT

JAY COOKE & CO. Offer for sale at par and accrued interest the

FIRST MORTGAGE LAND GRANT GOLD BONDS -of the-

Northern Pacific Railroad Co.

These bonds are secured, first, by a First Mortgage on the Railroad itself, its rolling stock, and all equipments; second, by a First Mortgage on its entire Land Grant, being more than Twenty-Two Thousand Acres of Land to each mile of Road.

The Bonds are free from United States tax;

the Principal and Interest are payable in Gold—the Principal at the end of Thirty years, and the Interest Semi-annually, at the rate of SEVEN AND THREE-TENTHS PER CENT. per annum. They are issued in denominations of $100, $500, $1,000, $5,000 and $10,000.

The Trustees under the Mortgage are Messrs. Jay Cooke, of Philadelphia, and J. Edgar Thomon. President of the Pennsylvania Central Railroad Company.

These Northern Pacific 7-30 Bonds will, at all times before maturity, be receivable AT TEN PER CENT. PREMIUM (or 1.10) in exchange for the Company's lands at their lowest cash price.
In addition to their absolute safety, these Bonds yield an income larger, we believe, than any other first-class security. Persons holding United States 5-20's can, by converting them into Northern Pacifics, increase their yearly income one-third, and still have a perfectly reliable investment.

HOW TO GET THEM.—Your nearest Bank or Banker will supply these bonds in any desired amount, and of any needed denomination. Persons wishing to exchange stocks or other bonds for these, can do so with any of our agents, who will allow the highest current price for ALL MAR-

TLEAR & HARMLESS AS WATER. NATTAN'S CRYSTAL DISCOVERY

The following letters speak for themselves: Washington, Nov. 4, 1870. Mr. Arthur Nattans: Dear Sir—After a very thorough and impartial trial of your Crystal Discovery for a month, I feel compelled to ac-knowledge its very great superiority over any other article now in use for the purpose designed the speedy restoration of the color and growth of the hair, and no one using it according to di-rections can fail, I am convinced, to attain this much desired result to perfection. The simplicity of the preparation and its entire cleanliness affords a new opportunity to the vast numbers utterly disgusted with the poisonous nostrums in use. Having a large number of my personal acquaintances who use your preparation with equal success, I cordially recommend Crystal Discovery to all persons desiring to use anything of this kind. Very respectfully, P. Doyle, 701 I street, N. W.

Washington, D. C., July 25, 1870.

Mr. Arthur Nattans: Dear Sir—It affords me pleasure to say that I have used your Crystal Discovery with perfect success. Having tried many others, I find yours superior to any I have heretofore used, and I cannot too highly recommend it was a rapid proposely of the growth of the heretofore used, and I cannot too highly recommend it as a rapid promoter of the growth of the hair, and by a few applications restoring it to its original color. It is perfectly clean and free from any objectionable matter.

Very respectfully yours, R. W. Silvor, K. st., bet. 4th and 5th, N. W.

President Potomac Ferry Co.

Alexandria, Va., Sept. 10, 1870 Mr. Arthur Nattans: Sir-I have great pleas ure in testifying to the excellence of your Crystal Discovery for the Hair. My back hair is re-markably long and thick, and became prematurely gray, (this being hereditary.) In eight days it resumed its natural color, chestnut-brown, coloring every hair. I like your preparation for its purity, pleasant odor, and freedom from all mineral and poisonous substances, as well as its other excellencies. I will recommend it to my acquaintances. Very respectfully. Miss L*
